Dear. My new Canadian family.

Hello! My name is [REDACTED] and 20 years old and sophomore. My major is English Language & literature. My English name is [REDACTED], so you can call me 'Grace'. My family members are 4 including my parents, younger brother and me. I'm recently very excited because I'll meet you in the Canada! And let me introduce myself to you. I'm Christian so I want to go to church every Sunday. And I hope the house is as close as possible to the school. And I'm non-smoker, so I hope there's no smoker. And I love animals especially puppy and baby cats so I don't care whether you have pets or not cause me have no allergic. And I want my personal desk, so I could study in my room. And I hope I could use wireless internet in the house. I'm very outgoing person and have active personality. So, I'm not afraid of conversation with new person. I want to make many conversations with you guys. Ah! In foods categories, I don't like beans, curry and shellfish but I love other things especially every kind of fruits, meats and breads. I love taking a walk and watching movies like romantic comedy, thriller, SF, fantasy, except horror films, and listening music like pop songs. Also I love travel and taking pictures. And I love party and make new friends! But I don't like noisy music like heavy metal. Oh, also, I have a scar on my left arm because of the bicycle accident, but it isn't hurt now so, don't be afraid of it. And my English skills maybe are not perfect, so I hope you could understand it and teach me about my pronunciations act. Also, I want you to tell me your house rules and keep them! I adjust to many things easily so I believe I will have great time there. I hope we'll get along with in becoming September. I expect to meet great Canada family! See you soon!
