

self introduction

Dear my new family

Hello my name is [REDACTED] in Korean and [REDACTED] in English. I am a student in Ulsan university and I major English Language & Literature. There are my parents and a younger sister in my family.

I am really kind, outgoing and active person. I like hanging out with my friends. Also I like to meet friends, especially foreigners. Thus, I like going to movies, travelling and shopping. I am christian from birth and I am a kindergarten teacher in church. So I want to go church in canada also and I hope they are children in my new family. I enjoy playing guitar and singing. I want to improve my speaking with my canadian family. I don't have any specific food that I hate and I don't mind any food. I like meats, fruits and noodle. I like dogs. I look after my puppy and fe is a kind of puddle. I am a non-smoker absolutely. Also I don't have any physical problem in the body. I am a very health guy. I like to swim. If I have a chance, I want to swim with my new family. I really want to my new family help me with my English for improve my speaking. I try to more conversation.

I am going to carry my laptop. Hope I could use wireless internet and I want my personal desk I could study in my room. I want to have conversations between family members and me. If there is chance for us to travel or shopping with my family. I really, really want to go with you. Actually I don't know much about canada so, I hope to learn about it. Also, I want you to tell me your house rules and keep them. I adjust to many things easily so I believe I will have great time there. I will look forward to see all of you. Thank You.
