

My dear home-stay family,

Hello, My name is [REDACTED] also my english name is [REDACTED]. As you know, I'm studying in university of Ulsan and my major is English Language & Literature. Going out abroad is first time to me. I'm really expected to be everything. I don't speak english very well but I'm steadily studying hard. I want to learn many thing. If you help me, I'm very appreciate it. I will be stay your home until December 31. I hope we will make many good memories together as long as I stay there.

Anyway, I want to tell you about my characteristics. I don't like smoking. I like children(about 4~13) very much. But I want to space alone too. I love sports such as catch ball, basketball, swimming, table tennis, and many things. I also like going to the movies with my girlfriend. She is also going to go to Canada with me. I'm very looking forward to it.

I like pets like dogs but I'm really sensitive about dust. I want that my room has good ventilation. If Wi-Fi is working in your house, I will be very happy because I will take my laptop or iPad. I hope that your shower is clean because I take a shower once a day.

Finally, If I take some mistake or behave disrespectfully, please explain me about that situation and give me some advices. I want to stay there with your family without any problems until I leave. Thank you for reading this, I want to see your family with a delightful look. I hope your family always have a good day.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
